INSURANCE WILL PROTECT MORTGAGE

During these uncertain times a life insurance policy for the amount of the mortgage should be considered an absolute necessity to the farmer whose property is mortgaged. It is a duty to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives. Should he die, his family will not only be deprived of his services in carrying on the farm, but they will be obliged to keep up the interest upon the mortgage and finally pay the principal at maturity in order to save their home. By taking a life insurance policy equal to the amount of the mortgage he will guard against the possible loss of the farm at his death and enable his family to own the farm unencumbered—A. J. Sather, Agent.

The committee appointed to look over the proposed road between section 13 and 24-44-4 gave their report. Mr. Eggen advised that in his opinion the better road for Merton ratepayers was on the road allowance proper on the north line of section 24-44-4

Mr. Wilson moved that Secretary write Gilt Edge M.D. stating that this Municipal District is willing to do some work on the road if Gilt Edge is willing to buy the land.

Mr. McKenzie moved that the question be postponed until the representatives of the Gilt Edge Municipal District have met the representatives of Merton Municipal District and discuss was lost. Councillor McKenie voting in favor.

Mr. Reynolds moved that the committee's report on the proposed road between sections 13 and 24-44-4 be accepted. Carried.

HON. T. A. CRERAR SAYS

GET WILD LANDS LISTED

Leader of National Progressive Party Endorses Principle of Legislation Requested by the Western Canada Colonization Association and its multitude of supporters throughout Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

Hon. T. A. Crerar's statement reads; "The proposal of the Western Canada Colonization Association that an inventory of unoccupied land be taken under Government auspices in the prairie provinces, and that the owners of such land should be obliged to fix a price at which they would sell to incoming settlers is, I think, an excellent one. The fact that the price so fixed would be made the value for assessment of the special Wild Lands Tax would keep the owner of the land down to a price that was reasonable and fair, Land speculation, and for that matter speculation in other natural resources, has been one of the worst evils this country has suffered from."

It is generally agreed that Canada needs more people but an immigration policy can only have permanent success if the people who are already living here are relieved of the artificial handicaps under which they have labored in the past, of which these speculations in land is one. The more people that come into the country the higher the land speculator raises the price. In the best interests therefore of the people of Canada the proposal that land held out of use should be made available for those who want to use it is sound and deserves the support of all good Canadian citizens. This step is in line with what the organized farmers of Western Canada have advocated for many years.."

seed grain notes unpaid for the purpose of obtaining additional security.

Mr. McKenzie moved that Secretary write to the Dept. of Municipal Affairs asking that the Seed Grain Notes be allowed to be carried until fall without issuing debentures. Carried.

Mr. Sharf moved that Secretary be paid the sum of $105.00 for expenses and mileage in connection with his canvas of Seed Grain security on notes unpaid. Carried.

Mr. McKenzie inquired whether Council intended to enforce the Municipal running at large. It was pointed out that although the Council passed By-Laws; it was up to the ratepayers themselves to see that these By-Laws were enforced; and Council had already agreed to defray the expenses of a test case; in the event of a ratepayer laying information with satisfactory evidence to sustain his charge.

Mr. Eggen brought up a petition of ratepayers to open up the Township line between Sec. 2 T 35 R 2. This matter was left over.

Mr. Sharf brought up the matter of a bad water hole on the road between 17 and 18 T 47 R 3.

Mr. Reynolds moved that Mr. Taylor be offered the sum of $15.00 as compensation for a right of way round the slough through Section 18 for a period of two years. Carried.

Mr. McKenzie brought up the question of the water on grade west of 18-47-1. Mr. Sharf moved that the Reeve and Mr. McKenzie investigate the possibility of draining the water off the grade on west side section 18-47-1. Carried.

Mr. McKenzie moved that secretary write the chief of staff of the C.P.R. asking when the lands of the C.P.R. Co. situated in Merton M.D. in T 45 46 and 47 R 1, 2 and 3 are liable for Taxes; and the signatures of the Reeve and all the Councillors be attached to the letter. Carried.

Mr. McKenzie moved that in view of the fact that the Wild Lands Tax goes to the Government; that this Council make requisition through our representative Mr. J. Lowery for $200.00 to help defray the expenses of Weed Inspection; as noxious weeds are largely found on land subject to Wild Lands Tax; and that this request be signed by the Reeve and all the Councillors. The motion was lost, Cirs. McKenzie and Sharf voting in favor.

In this connection it was pointed out by Mr. Sharf that all expenses in connection with inspection and destroying weeds were chargeable against the land so inspected.

Mr. Eggen moved that the attention of the Dept of Public Works be drawn to the state of the two bridges across the river (the Chauvin and Edgerton bridges) and to ask that immediate assistance be especially requested. Mr. Eggen pointed out that these bridges were in a dangerous condition owing to the planking and some of the piles being cut out by the ice jam.

Mr. McKenzie inquired as to the findings of the committee appointed to look over the road at Woods Crossing. The findings of the committee were that a 7 per cent grade could be made by keeping to the road allowance on east side of the Coulee; and a slight diversion would be necessary on the east side.

The Reeve gave his report of his trip to Edgerton to interview the bank with regard to establishing credits for road work. The reeve stated that no money was forthcoming for road work yet; as the bank had not yet heard from head office.

Mr. McKenzie moved report be accepted. Carried.

Accounts amounting to $48.50 were submitted to council and passed for payment on motion of Mr. A. McKenzie

The meeting then adjourned on motion of Mr. Reynolds.

Local Notes Of Interest

Miss Connoboy, who during her stay in our midst, has proved a most excellent teacher, and useful worker in the community, having resigned her position as principal of the St. Aubin School, left yesterday, en route for Bath, England. We are sorry to lose her from our community, and wish her every success and prosperity.

Selius Djuff, of Dina district, is to erect one of the finest residences in the district. He has hauled considerable lumber from the Chauvin lumber yards already. The new structure will be an eight roomed one, and cost around $5000.

The prize list of the Chauvin School fair is now available. Miss Freman is circulating these to the various schools. The list will appear in these columns some time in early June.

Dr. Buggins, Dentist of Provost will make a professional visit to Chauvin on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 19th, 20th, and 21st.

AN ELECTION SEEMS TO BE POSSIBILITY THIS AUTUMN

A Provincial election in the near future is looming up as a possibility. make an early appeal to the country are now persistent, and the likelihood of another contest is being somewhat freely discussed in political circles. Late June is mentioned as a possible date for such an election, while another rumour has it that it will be held in the autumn, with perhaps a referendum on the prohibition question in the meantime.

No verification of the forecast can yet be secured, but the belief that an election is on the way notwithstanding the government's silence on the question, still persists. Some of the members of the legislature are credited with certain hints and implications that a contest was in sight for the early summer, and one of the ministers, name not given, is said to have inadvertently suggested an impending election in June.

The rumour will not run down to earth, but it seems to be a case of a good deal of smoke, with a fire somewhere in the background that is responsible for it.

It is understood that Premier Stewart has disapproved of an election this year and has repeatedly advised against it, but some of the other ministers are equally strong in their desire to have it.

That a number of the members, including some of the ministers, are already planning early summer programs in their constituencies is now common knowledge, and while these visits will be ostensibly in the nature of follow-up work in connection with local road grants, improvements, and such like, there is a suspicion that they will be preparatory also to the election to come later.

The referendum theory is based on the belief that the government intends to take advantage of the new legislation giving it the right to refer the liquor question to the people again, and that the verdict on that question will govern the policy on fought in the autumn.

If, on the other hand, a June date is chosen for the election, it will be taken as a verification of the premier's known opposition to mixing the pro-move on the part of the government to seek the people's endorsement before the farmers' party, in particular, can organize effectively for the fray.

The government has another year of life ahead of it and need not, in point of legal procedure go to the polls again until after the 1922 legislature. One of the reasons why it should not do so, of which a good deal has been made, is the fact that redistribution is on the program and would be desirable before another election is held. This will not be possible now until the next legislature meets.

It is pointed out, however, that a partial redistribution has already been made, the recent legislature having decided that Edmonton and Calgary shall in future each have five members and Medicine Hat two members. With these changes, it is thought the rest of the province could quite conveniently contest another election on the present basis.

Whether the earlier or the later date will be chosen, or whether there shall be an election at all or not, will be settled within the next week or so, if it has not already been settled. Such, at any rate, is believed in near political circles.

FAVOR EXPERIMENTAL PLAN FOR MARKETING WHEAT CROP

A voluntary scheme of wheat marketing, operated by a specially created organization directly responsible to its farmer-patrons, provided sufficient demand for voluntary pooling exists and providing the government is desirous of acceding to that demand, is the recommendation contained in the report on wheat marketing preparations by the Canadian Wheat Board at the request of the Saskatchewan government.

The report suggests that a voluntary pool should be conducted on an experimental scale, rather than an attempt made to embark on a full-fledged scheme.

In the first place it is believed that the most perfect form of a centralized wheat marketing agency, at the present can be created only under control of a national organization, and secondly, that in considering any form of wheat marketing pool involving less than complete national control, one based upon voluntary co-operative effort on the part of the producer, is preferable to one bound by the provisions of a legal contract.

Dealing with the principle of any form of pool the commission emphasized that success of failure depended on the degree of support given by the producers. While federal control through such an agency as the Canada Wheat Board provided distinct advantages to the produce it was worth or a non-minimum contract pool successfully operated with a comparatively limited patronage might be mentioning that a voluntary pool able to exercise sufficient regulative influence over trade practices to reduce to a minimum any disadvantages which the present system may have developed.

Objections were voiced in the report to a contract pool in view of the conditions which might arise "under which either party to the contract would find the provisions onerous to say the least. This, in turn would bring into play psychological influences which might easily be sufficient to precipitate the failure of the scheme. In other words a binding contract for several years during a transition period, and applying to marketing, appears to be one of the least desirable steps to be taken with a view to improving marketing conditions.

There is nothing that a producer would be required to do that he cannot do of his own free will. It is much more to producers' interests that they should realize this fact than that they should sign a contract only to learn it was a barrier to their real aims.

Dealing with the possibility of operating a voluntary pool on an experimental scale, the commission says: "The general principle of a voluntary pool involves centralized selling, initial advances, and equal distribution of proceeds of sales according to grade. The plan of operation would be a voluntary pool, where the producer may deliver to the pooling organization without a contract the whole or any portion of his wheat, but where there are no optional marketing channels at the disposal of the patron within the pooling organization all the wheat would be pooled. The pooling organization would have complete control of the wheat after receipt of documents—such as bills of lading or storage tickets representing the wheat. Arrangements would be made for carload lots by means of storage tickets, or for carload lots by consignment. This would apply to wheat handled by any licensed elevator, and might also include oats shipped over the platform.

On receipt of bills of lading covering consignments, or of storage tickets covering less than carlots, a uniform advance would be made, basis One Northern in store Fort William. Under this system the Canadian Grain Act as at present would render all country elevators and terminal facilities available to farmers at every shipping point, whether a country elevator was located there or not.

"With regard to financing a pooling arrangement should be an attractive proposition to banks. In view of the fact that the initial advance would be only a conservative percentage of the value of the wheat pooled, it might reasonably be expected that the banks would favorably consider financing scheme on its own merits, this being in effect what they generally do now through the advances given their clients, the grain companies. If, however, satisfactory arrangements could not be made with the banks the government might assist by guaranteeing the necessary credits to make the scheme operative at all times. Periods would likely occur when, in the opinion of the management of the pool, it would be advisable to withhold supplies from the market. At such times credit would be curtailed, and assistance from the government would, in that event obviate the necessity of making forced sales at prices which might be regarded by the management as unduly low, in such circumstances, the government no doubt could assist by arranging for an extension of credit. Once delivery of the wheat at the terminals commenced, a certain percentage of the wheat, of course, would be converted into cash from time to time, and to that extent necessity for credit would be relieved.

"The legislature of Saskatchewan could assist in the matter of legislation by passing such measures as would enable either organization before described to be created. It would also be essential that such organization should have the power, if and when necessary to purchase and sell wheat other than that pooled. This should not become a general practice, but occasions would occur when the the management of the pool might over-estimate the quantity of any particular grade which they had contracted for delivery within a specified period. In order to comply with the terms of such a contract, therefore, it would probably find itself compelled to go into the open market and purchase the balance required to complete the same.

"The advantage of the proposal we have dealt with in this answer are that the adoption of it provides a which can be operated with the least disturbance of existing facilities, and which does not involve the farmer in the complications, present or future, that might attach to a contract pool.

As previously pointed out, the rest depends upon patronage and service.

Dinner had just been served, and the lady of the house, glancing at the joint, remarked: "This leg of mutton has shrunk away to practically nothing."

"Yes," replied the husband, "it must be off the same sheep as my flannel shirt."

THE INCOME TAX

Most of us have no very great objection to paying for the part we took in winning the great war. It was worth a heap of money to defeat the plan of the Kaiser to grind us all under his heel. Of course we all had the impression we would make the scoundrel and his country, at least pay the financial expenses of his war. But it turns out that there is not enough money in the whole world to pay the war debts and that if we—as we certainly should—make Germany pay to the utmost limit of its power, we shall still have to meet the greater part of what the war cost us.

It is simply disgusting, now, to have these prodigious railway debts heaped on to us, atop of the war debts. How pull down the transportation charges? In the Old Country the poorer people have to pay in nearly a third of their little incomes in taxes and it is supposed that we will have to face some pretty steep payments ourselves. Unless that is, we discover some means of developing our resources and increasing our population much more rapidly than has been the case in the immediate past.

A PREVENTIVE

One hears a great deal to-day of the necessity of additional production but too little of the necessity of the prevention of waste. The fire loss of the Dominion in 1920 was approximately $27,400,000 equal to about $3.42 per capita, on a 8,000,000 population or $17.10 per family

The loss of life and the injuries sustained largely through carelessness are beyond calculation, while our per capita fire waste in this country is about six times that of Europe. Are we to allow this condition to exist, when young and old, rich and poor, strong and weak, can each take an active part in assisting to protect the lives and resources of our people.

Would not then "Clean up week" reveal the occasion for a general get-together by removing existing hazards from, and around our homes. This can be so much more easily done during the spring time cleaning.

The attic, cellar, closets, yards and outbuildings should be thoroughly cleaned, and the useless material, and rubbish removed, or destroyed. Store the remaining articles neatly away.

Oily waste or rags used in polishing furniture should never be left around the house, as they are liable to cause a fire from spontaneous combustion within one hour.

No matter if in home or store the furnace room should be the acme of cleanliness. Great care should be exercised in cleaning the chimneys and stovepipes, which will have accumulated quantities of soot during the winter months.

There is absolutely no reason for a backyard full of broken boxes, packing material, bottles, paper and manure. Piles of old ashes near the house A barn full of accumulated old rubbish you will never use.

Do not allow your premises to remain unsightly, and dangerous.

Each citizen of Canada is responsible in part for the high insurance rates existing, but can help reduce the cost of insurance by preventing fires.

A SHREWD FARMER'S PLAN

For many years a well-to-do farmer has made it a rule to sow each year the kind of produce that brought a low price the year before. When barley was cheap he sowed barley, and the same with other cereals, while grain that was a high price, he sowed sparingly. He said the tendency of farmers was to sow high priced seed and overstock the market, when the prices would come down. Think about it, and see if something doesn't come to your mind to justify the conduct of the successful old farmer of year, and in consequence the acreage will likely be reduced and there may be a shortage with fair or high prices. Those who sowed sweet clover at $25 a bushel last year are having an experience. If they sow it now there may be a fortune in it when the crop is ready to market.

IDEAL SPRING WEATHER

A most encouraging prospect presents itself to the farmers of this district, who are now busy plowing and seeding. The weather this spring has been all that could be desired. The recent rainfalls supplied plenty of moisture for the sowing process. This means that the grain is going into the ground under highly favorable conditions. Another relapse on the part of the thermometer can scarcely be regarded as probable.

The scratch of a lion's claw is almost as deadly as his bite, for he never cleans his nails, and he always carries under them rotting meat that is rank with deadly germs. Flies do the same thing on a smaller scale; and don't forget they never wipe their feet.

As the production of grain is the chief occupation of the district, it is comforting to note that the circumstances are as hopeful at this stage. It is expected that the acreage in this district to be devoted to the various grains will show a big increase. Many acres were prepared for crop during the dry weather last fall, and this will count heavily when the statistics of acres are counted up.

The trouble with young Canada is that he wants to step on the gas and sidestep most everything else.

Too many Canadian manufacturers have been relying upon the tariff to sell their goods for them. If they would make a good article, brand it, and advertise it, the problem would be settled.

According to an eastern doctor, hearts are more likely to be broken by joy than by grief. Here, perhaps, is another argument against the repeal of the income tax laws.

The railroads' troubles would be at an end if they could devise some plan by which they could simultaneously increase wages and reduce freight and passenger rates.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS
with complete directions for finishing

Deltor is a new and wonderful addition to Butterick Patterns which does for the skill and cleverness of your cutting, sewing and finishing, what the pattern does for the style of your garment.

As the pattern enables you to reproduce in your garment the style originated by a master designer, so Deltor enables you to reproduce, in the cutting of your goods, the dash and accuracy of its original cutter; to reproduce the skilful precision and niceties of its original tailor in your sewing and making; and to reproduce in the finishing those subtle touches, the very individualities of method, of its original creator.

Stop at our Butterick Pattern Department when you come to the store, and have this new system explained to you.

With this issue The Chauvin Chronicle completes its seventh volume. Seven full volumes of fifty-two issues each.

It was in February 1914 that The Chronicle commenced its history, in a small granary on the spot where the present modern and well equipped office now stands. The original $700 plant has grown larger and better until it was one of $7,000. Then came the fire in 1919 which wiped up everything, reducing us to the miserable condition of our forerunners, the "Advance" and the "Gazette." We were encouraged by splendid support and decided to re-establish our business, doing so with an even better outfit, to the present value of $10,000..

We mention this, not in any boastful spirit, but because we wish our subscribers to understand that in order to produce a good local paper it is necessary to lay out these too large amounts of money. We are forced to capitalize our business—even against our own will.

Capital alone cannot produce an interesting local paper. There must be the living interest in the affairs of its own community. There must be expression of local thought and sentiment. Occasionally we must offend. And always, when a local paper has done its utmost, there still remains room for improvement.

We have a legend. It runs to the effect that there was only one perfect newspaper man ever lived. He, very strange to say, is now in heaven, his name being St Peter.. But to return to facts. Newspaper people are just like other people. They don't know everything. They have intense sympathy with the happenings of every day, and in the welfare of the common people. But their limitations are the same limitations of our people. They cannot do two things at once, nor can they be in two places at once. So that every editor of a local paper must have the active support of his readers in gathering the news of the week; and in learning the thoughts of his own people.

The sad truth has to be faced. The great majority of rural editors are so overloaded with the laborious and mechanical details of their work that they do not have the time nor the energy to get out and around among his readers. This fact is a tremendous handicap.

The true object of a local paper is to give expression of the thoughts of its readers; to deal with local matters of importance, and to be a powerful instrument in the formulating of a strong public opinion on matters of public welfare; be those matters either of local or national importance. The local paper should be a bulwark for the common folks. It should be the expression of rural ideals. It should be able to supplement the ideas emanating from our educational centres, and the ready-made city views, by the strong virile thoughts of the rural dweller.

As the cities have always received invigoration by the constant incoming of vigorous rural citizens to carry on its varied functions, so also should fresh vigorous rural thought and sentiment vitalize our national ideals and politics.

That being so, may we point out that it is very necessary that the local paper receive support, not merely by advertising and subscriptions, but that moral and intellectual support which too often is withheld without any thought of doing so.

It is not an easy thing for the rural newspaper worker to continue year in and year out, ever working long hours, amid the whirl of machinery, watching the clock recording quickly passing hours, and striving with his small equipment to produce a paper of high standard to maintain that mental vigor and optimistic outlook requisite for his work. How can the weary mind grasp intelligently or sanely the truth of a matter. How can he put into proper words the news and thoughts you pass on to him in the raw form. Yet too often, year in and year out he strives to do so, frequently getting into a rut as a result. The true newspaper man likes his paper to live in the affection of his readers. He likes to feel that his paper is looked for each week. He wants to feel that the people are helped by reading his paper. He is prepared to give of his best that this object may be obtained.

Possibly our readers may think that we are talking a little too personally. We only ask them to remember that as this may be called our seventh birthday, we indulge in this confessional. During the past seven years we have done those things which we ought not to have done, and we have left undone those things which we ought to have done—but ever, omissions or commissions considered, we have earnestly strived to give you a better and still better paper each week.

As to the future who can speak. We will endeavor to carry on, we are by no means out of the woods of financial difficulties, but will continue to blaze the trail in the hopes of getting through.

So we pass, the seven years are behind us, what the future may bring we know not.

The railroad officials have granted a concession to Chauvin and Edgerton in recognition of the unfavorable situation caused by the change in the schedule of trains. This concession is gladly accepted, and already a change for the better is to be traced. The railway suffered a diminution of income from points east of Wainwright to the Alberta boundary during the short time reduced service was in operation. At the time of going to press we are by no means sure that the present concession will be long continued, but should be it discontinued the railway must look for another diminution in their revenue and the rest of us may look for a reduction of our income.

Railway officials know thoroughly well that the greater the opportunity for and facility of travel, the larger will be the volume of traffic. They know that when they add expense and discomfort to the experience of travellers that they will divert traffic from their road.

A railroad official who has enthusiasm for his work may be forgiven for taking a pride in his "crack train" as the motorist delights in his high-powered and speedy car, and as the horseman delights in his "horse, or as the yachtsman delights in his beautiful vessel. But the plebian cream shipper, the toiler of the prairie cannot delight in seeing his business and profits sacrificed by a railroaders devotion to a "flyer" carrying a 20 to 30 per cent load and leaving him "sore" on the roadside.

The railroad officials have sacrificed some ideals and desires to grant us this concession. We thank them for it, meanwhile confessing we feel the concessions are justly due to us.

Prairie Premiers
Conference Called

Uniform legislation to deal with unoccupied Land Problem and conditions of Settlers now on land to be subject discussed

General McRae says one old settler worth several new ones

Premier T. G. Norris of Manitoba has been requested to call a conference of the three prairie province Premiers to discuss and agree upon a plan for dealing with the unoccupied land problem in Western Canada. It is generally agreed by the business and farming interests of the country that uniform provincial legislation is necessary to effectively assist the various colonization agencies in settling the idle lands close to railways and now held out of production. A firm listing of unoccupied lands at fixed prices for a reasonable period was the main proposal contained in a memorial to the Western Governments by General A. D. McRae, a few days ago. His suggestion for enabling legislation has met with universal support in each of the three prairie provinces. The view is strongly held that the creation of a land Board under the Minister of Agriculture in each Province, which would take listings of the unoccupied lands in Western Canada and thus provide a medium through which all colonization agencies could operate, would be of incalculable value in assisting settlement of the vacant areas in Western Canada. The enabling legislation thus proposed in General McRae's memorial has consequently met with almost universal support in each of the prairie provinces. It is proposed that the conference will not only consider the needs of the incoming settler but as well the conditions surrounding agriculturists now on the land. The opinion has been expressed by general McRae that one old settler is worth several new ones, and the problem of those now in the country should be fully considered at the forthcoming premiers' conference. Speaking in the Manitoba Legislature a few days ago Attorney General T. H. Johnson said that the Manitoba Government was greatly impressed with the useful results that are likely to attend the conference in question.

Congratulations to Edgerton upon the splendid Dramatic Society, of which they should justly be proud. The presentation of the farce entitled "Why Smith Left Home" by the talented members of the Edgerton Dramatic Society, in the Oddfellow's Hall, Chauvin, on Friday evening, 13th of May, was keenly enjoyed by the Chauvin audience. The plot of this three act farce was a simple one, but rich in the portrayal of character, and we are only fair to the amateur thespians when we say that each one of them performed their parts with considerable skill and fully interpreted the characters they were impersonating. The costumes worn by the ladies of the company were very becoming, and the cook-lady's peculiarly appropriate. Whilst the scenic effects were cleverly attained by a simple but adequate device of their own manufacture. The general effects of furniture and other decorations were all provided. The whole forming what we may, without descending to boasting, term a complete success. Having described the plot some few weeks since, we will not repeat the same. The following were the caste John Smith . . . Mr. J. W. Kennedy General Billetdoux . . . Mr. R. Hulland Ct Von Guggenheim, Mr W. Sportitz Major Duncombe, . . . Mr H. C. Boyd Robert Watlon . . . Mr E. Spornitz John Smith . . . Miss B. E. Mabey Miss Smith Miss E. B. Cox Mrs Billetdoux . . . Mrs J. I. Sawyer Rose Walton Miss Milne Julia Miss F. M. Newell Elsie Miss D. Maddocks Lavinia Daly Miss Jean Smith Good music was supplied by members of the Edgerton orchestra, who played the overtures, interludes, and later at the dance which followed. The impression left upon the Chauvin audience was entirely favorable, and the hope that they will pay us a return visit is most freely expressed.

Edinglassie Gets a Bull

Thirteen progressive farmers of the Edinglassie district have banded together and organized the Edinglassie Aberdeen Angus Association. They have, in cooperation with the Alberta government, obtained a very choice pure, black Aberdeen Angus bull, of registered stock. This bull though not in showing condition, is in splendid shape and breeding condition. It is to be reasonably expected that this bull will do much to improve the herds in the Edinglassie district. Membership in the association costs $1.00 and members pay $1.50 for service fee. Mr P. H. Perry is secretary of the association, and is also caretaker of the bull.

* * *

Six members of the Edinglassie are cooperating in seeding White Sweet Clover. They have obtained 110 pounds, of which each takes a share, and will cultivate same during the coming seasons. Great interest will be taken in their venture, which we all trust will prove a success.

EDINGLASSIE U. F. A.

The next regular meeting of the Edinglassie U. F. A. will be held at 7.30 p.m., Thursday June 9th

RIBSTONE U. F. A.

The next meeting of the Ribstone U.F.A. will be held in the Municipal Hall, Ribstone, at 8 p.m., Saturday, May 28th. Attendance of every member is requested as important business is to be transacted.

Red Cross Campaign

A meeting of the local Red Cross campaign committee was held in the Union Bank chambers last week and was attended by the president, G. W. Allan, secretary A. S. Campbell, also the following committee members, W. Cubitt, J. Guthrie, Mesdames L. E. Roy and D. MacDonald. It was decided that Mesdames Roy and MacDonald should canvas the town for members; that Rev. Father Huet and Rev. Miller be invited to cooperate, and to make announcements from the pulpits; and also that Mr Laws, the principal of the Chauvin Public School be asked to organize the Junior Red Cross for the district, with the assistance of the other teacher of both town and rural schools.

Local Notes Of Interest

Owing to delay in receiving the new regulations from the Department of Agriculture the prize list of the local fair has been held up, it is now in the hands of the printer and will appear at an early date.

For the information of those desiring to compete for the prizes offered for baby's outfit of six pieces, the following is the list of articles necessary—coat or cape, bonnet, kimona or wrapper, dress, nightdress, headshawl—trimming need not be confined to crochet.

Ribstone W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of the Ribstone W.I. was held on May 7th. The fall fair is to be held on September 10th. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Phippen who so kindly donated his work in erecting platform in hall.

* * *

A play will be produced by the Ribstone W. I. on June 17th, which will be advertised later.

Football Notes

A game has been arranged between a picked team from Airlie and Edinglassie to meet the local team on Saturday evening at seven o'clock sharp. All players are requested to be out in uniforms.

A general meeting will take place after the game for the election of officers.

BASEBALL NOTES

Turnout to practise have not been so good as might be, possibly owing to the spring rush. Good progress is being made by those who have turned out. Regular practise nights are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Basket Ball

On Monday evening the High School girls and the Chauvin Ladies clashed in the fourth game of the league series. The game was exciting and evenly contested, the girls managing to pull out a win of 16-9. The Ladies are improving steadily and made the H.S. work their combination to the limit.

On Saturday afternoon, Airlie came in to play the Teachers. The game attracted considerable interest and was well attended. The game was keenly fought but the Airlie players proved to have the edge in physical condition and stopped the teachers by a score of 13-7. Saturday evening, the High School girls played the Teachers, so that the following Saturday would be free in chance to attend the game at Airlie between the H.S. boys and Airlie. During part of the first period the girls piled up a score of 10-0. Then the Teachers threw some of their male supporters into the breach but were unable to stop the onslaught, the girls eventually winning by a score of 14-4. The Teachers feel that their defeat is owing to their ignoring the advice of the Minister of Education on the previous night and feel that when the next contest comes off they will reverse the order of the score.

The High School girls now head the league and are to be congratulated on their showing which has only been attained by consistent practising.

Your Red Cross Calls

Red Cross to-day is the vision of a wonderful ideal. Faith and effort can carry it to a glorious reality.

Its peace-time mission is to save lives and to help the suffering, exactly as it was on the battlefield.

It can ward off disease from your child and mine and the child that is yet unborn and make the world a better place for him to live in. It can ward off pestilence and contagion from your own community and so protect us all. It can help weld all the people of our country and of all the other countries into the common brotherhood of sympathy that is so necessary now if humanity is to keep to the path of progress.

Red Cross has not forgotten the crippled, the blinded, the helpless, or the simply unsettled remnants of war, in our hospitals and throughout our land.

She remembers them, and has the resources and devotion to care for them, but she also has a new and a broad work to do for which your endorsement is now asked.

The membership enrolment is a nation-wide reminder to everyone who has ever helped the Red Cross, or been helped by it—and who has not—to renew their allegiance to its sacred emblem, identify themselves by their membership with its effort to better the condition of humanity at home, throughout our Dominion, all over the world.

When you could see with your own eyes that your son was in danger and could be helped, you did not hesitate. You can still see the dangers that surround him everywhere, if you will but look with the eyes of understanding.

Learn all about the Red Cross Mission for health. Join the Red Cross and enlist in its crusade.
